

I am a Republican. I am extremely distressed by your proposal to destroy the diversity and vitality of our communications industry by allowing concentration in the hands of a few corporations that have little interest in the news business itself. I am also distressed that this shameful proposal is being pursued in such a furtive manner.